

Case Report of the NPO act.

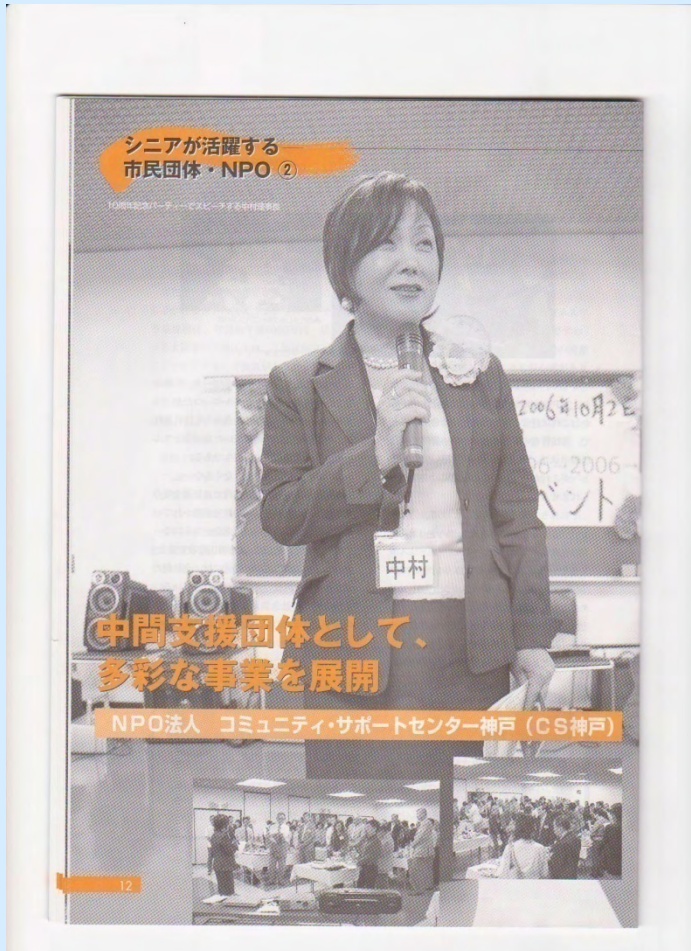

by elderly

NPO Community support center in KOBE: 1995

Downing of NPO act.

Ms.Junko Nakamura

- Start; 1995
Hansin Awaji Big earthquake
- Work; niche business in Community
- Working expenses;
About a hundred million
(¥)

Out side service of the Public nursing-care insurance system

Livelihood total care support service

Meal delivery service for one person household

Transportation service for elderly

Community center building maintenance

NPO Osaka Senior community college 2009～ Mr. Michio Nagai

Start; Governance give up the management for senior community college because financial deficit

Work; Management learning class for senior citizen

Working expenses; About Thirty million (¥)

Learner are 600 peoples(60 or older)

One course is one year

Archaeology & History Class

Classical literature Class

Painting Class

Gardening Class

Natural outdoor Class

Interaction within generation Class

Irodori Co.Inc.

(Community Business)

At Kamikatutyou, TokusimaPrefec.

Mr. Tomoji Yokoisi

Start; Mr. Yokoisi (who was local government employee) looked at that the aged people always played cards or chess.

So he wanted to make business for aged people.

KAMIKATUTYOU Irodori's leaves and flowers are shipped to Japanese inns and Ryotei, where they are arranged by master chefs.

Leaf business

- The leaves and flowers used by Irodori are harvested from the rich natural environment of Kamikatsu Town. Clear mountain air and pure water gushing down off the mountain and into the valley cause each of their fair town 's seasons to be both beautiful and colorful. Because the plants are from this beautiful natural environment, their products are delivered with confidence and pride.
- Irodori Co.Inc. is being considered by the welfare industry because even the elderly are capable of picking leaves and flowers, putting them into trays, and selling them.
- Annual business :two hundred and fifth million

Elderly persons volunteer activities

